

The Definitive Reservation of Rights Checklist: 50 Things That Every ROR Needs

The National Underwriting Company Webinar
11.18.15

KEY ATTORNEYS

Randy J. Maniloff

One of the most frequent and important tasks associated with liability claims is drafting a Reservation of Rights letter. But no matter how much experience a person has drafting them, it is still easy to omit something. And courts have been penalizing insurers for issuing Reservation of Rights letters that they do not believe are adequate. This penalty can be severe – the loss of coverage defenses.

Randy Maniloff presents the following webinar: The Definitive Reservation of Rights Checklist: 50 Things That Every ROR Needs.

50 may sound like a lot. But Randy makes the case that there are that many things that every ROR should have – or consider.

This is The Most Practical Webinar That You Will Ever Attend. Attendees will leave with a 50-item ROR checklist that they can begin to implement, in their actual work, immediately after the webinar is over.

The Webinar has been approved for CE and CLE credit in various states.

For more details on this webinar, including registration information, click here.