

White and Williams Represents Investment Fund in $68 Million Bridge Financing Mortgage Loan

5.10.21

White and Williams represented an investment fund in connection with the bridge financing of a Class A office tower in downtown Chicago. The client provided a $68 million mortgage loan to a joint venture comprised of a large private equity firm and a full-service institutional commercial real estate operator. The parties are currently in the process of bifurcating the loan into separate mortgage and mezzanine tranches.

The White and Williams team is comprised of Tim Davis, William Johnston, Thomas Pinney and Michele Frost.
