

Scott Casher to Receive Pro Bono Attorney Award

8.3.23

Lawyers for Children America (LFCA) has selected Scott Casher, a Partner in our Stamford, Conn. office, to receive LFCA's pro bono attorney award. LFCA chose Scott based upon the difficulty of the LFCA cases he has handled, the challenges he has overcome in the cases, the significant time he has devoted to the cases, and the excellent legal representation he has provided to LFCA clients. Scott has been providing pro bono legal services to LFCA since 2019. LFCA is also presenting awards to two law firms and another attorney. White and Williams LLP is proud to be a Bronze Sponsor of the LFCA awards ceremony this year, which will take place on September 14, 2023 at The Glastonbury Boathouse in Glastonbury, Conn.

About LFCA

LFCA is a leading child advocacy organization, protecting the rights of children who are victims of abuse, neglect and abandonment, by providing the highest level of direct pro bono legal representation. LFCA recruits and trains committed lawyers from premiere law firms and corporate legal departments, whose legal counsel ensure that the child client's desires are made known to the court and that the child client receives comprehensive services, including medical, mental health and educational services. LFCA's efforts also include educating lawyers and the private bar about the needs of state child protection systems, with the end goals of improving quality legal representation and engaging the private bar in systemic improvements.
