

White and Williams LLP Opens New Morristown, NJ Office

Morristown, NJ
12.23.25

White and Williams LLP is pleased to announce the opening of its newest office in Morristown, New Jersey, effective December 15.

Located at 163 Madison Avenue, the office enhances the Firm's ability to serve clients throughout New Jersey and the broader region. Approximately 15 attorneys will be based in Morristown, representing key practice areas including Insurance Coverage and Bad Faith, Commercial Litigation, Litigation, Life, Health, Disability and ERISA, Healthcare, Labor and Employment and Real Estate Finance.

"I am pleased to announce the opening of our Morristown, New Jersey office. This office supports the Firm's strategic vision of strengthening our presence in Northern New Jersey, a vibrant business community and home to many of our clients. We look forward to working within the community and continuing to provide best in class service to our clients in the years ahead," commented Tim Davis, Managing Partner and Chair of the Executive Committee. "I am excited that we are able to broaden our reach and build more personal relationships with our clients located in this region," stated Gabriel Darwick, Managing Partner of the new office.

With the addition of the Morristown office, the Firm now has ten offices across multiple states. The new office is conveniently situated near Morristown's town center along the Route 124 corridor, offering strong connectivity via NJ Transit rail lines and major highways. Its proximity to New York City and approximately 30-minute drive to Newark Airport provides excellent accessibility for clients and visitors.

For more than 125 years, White and Williams has delivered exceptional legal services grounded in the Firm's core values of excellence, creativity, and commitment to our clients. These principles have guided the Firm's growth as a multi-practice provider of sophisticated legal counsel and supported its continued expansion throughout the Mid-Atlantic region.
